THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 1870.

CIVIS.

Somebody has published a letter in the Standard, over the signature of "Civis," addressed to the editor of this paper. As "Civis" is an outlandish name; belonging to a dead language, we propose to notice the writer, (slightly,) under the cognomen of "Fatty," as being more English; more euphonious and more appropriate.

"Fatty" sets out with the greasy lie, (by innuendo,) that it is the purpose of the Sentinel to defend the Ku Klux in all their violations of law, and then asks us why Mr. Horneday was aroused from his slumbers by Ku Klux, a short time ago, &c., to all of which, Mr. "Fatty," we emphatically reply we don't know. We don't know that the thing actually occurred! And we further say, if it did occur it was wrong. You say it is our business to excuse or apologize for Ku Klux outrages, which is another greasy lie of yours, "Fatty."

You say, by insinuation, that J. R. Garnett, a Magistrate, invited to and entertained at his own house a band of lawless murderers, who were masked and disguised, contrary to law. If this be so, and you knew it and don't take out a writ against him and have him tried, you are a bad citizen, and guilty of a misdemeanor; if you don't know it, you are found bearing false witness against your neighbor, in saying it. You propound many ifs in connection with this matter, as if they were true—now if you will go before a magistrate or Judge and make affidavit that your statements are true, and get out a warrant against the party or parties, you accuse, we will guaranty to have them before Judge Watts, in this city in forty-eight hours, provided he will deputize us to serve the warrant. You just simply make the affidavit, "Fatty," and we will give you any assurance you can ask for the execution of the warrants.

Do you know who entered Forsythe county jail and released a "God forsaken" prisoner from the "meshes of the law?"—Do you know that it was our "subordinates" who did it! Do you know that we have subordinates of the kind you allude to? If you do know it, you ought to have us arrested. If you don't know it, you are found a false accuser, in short, an anonymous lying scribbler.

In your recapitulation of outrages in Alamance, Orange, &c., there is one instance you fail to notice, perhaps because it happened some time ago: I allude to a negro being taken from the grave—the last resting place of a human being violated—and the body boiled to make the flesh strip from the bones, which were strung together into a skeleton. The heart sickens at the contemplation of the vile act, but it was done some time ago, and it was only a negro, "Patty" and you, no doubt, think there was not so much harm in it, as it was only a negro! The perpetrator of this shocking act, was indicted and was let off, on submission of the case, by paying the cost. Did you ever hear of it, "Patty?"

We shall not notice your vile, vindictive, malignant, lying diatribes any further, this morning, "Patty," but you may be sure we are not done answering you yet.

LAST NIGHT OF THE PROTRACTED MEETING.

It is an undeniable fact, the series of public meetings in this city, held on Monday, and on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, had a good effect. There were not only Democrats and Conservatives present, but a good many Republicans, many of them colored, and we have heard several of the latter express themselves as well pleased with the speeches on the occasion.

On Wednesday night the Court House was full, the audience was attentive and and speeches of a character to convince and confirm those present that a change in the administration of our State affairs is necessary to save the State from utter ruin.

Addresses were delivered, during the evening by Col. Malone, Maj. Graham, Messrs. J. H. Moore, Fab. Busbee, Bledsoe, A. Miller and Robbins.

The following preamble and resolutions were introduced by J. Turner, Jr., and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Legislature has before it a bill authorizing a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, and allowing Solicitors, without affidavit, to transport a citizen from Currituck to Cherokee for trial; and whereas, law and liberty, on the one hand, and a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, on the other, are at eternal enmity, therefore,

Resolved, That the people of this free country will teach Gov. Holden that they are born to be governed by the Constitution, and not by the arbitrary power of any one man.

Resolved, That we submitted to the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus during the Confederacy, because we could not help ourselves.

Resolved, That, as Gov. Holden taught us, while under Jeff. Davis, President of the Confederacy, to resist arbitrary power and a suspension of the writ to the death, so we pledge ourselves to resist the suspension of the writ under him and his radical faction by every constitutional means at our command.

Resolved, That we are opposed to Ku Klux, masked or unmasked.

Resolved, That a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, would be simply to mount the Governor and send him forth as an unmasked Ku Klux through the State, as it would give him arbitrary power to Ku Klux whom he pleased.

Resolved, That there is wisdom in the words of the golden-spoken Burk, that "he who would give, or he who would exercise arbitrary power, is an enemy to God and man, and to all good government."

A motion to adjourn prevailed, and the meeting dispersed in the most perfect good order and in the best feeling.

The Reds got a little frightened at the effect of the "protracted meeting," so they got some hand bills printed while the meeting was going on, Wednesday night, and brought them up and were distributing them through the crowd, for a meeting last night. This was intended to hold the Reds to their allegiance and counteract, as far as practicable the good impressions that had been made on their minds.

HOW TO DEVELOPE THE SOUTH.

We copy below a very sensible and truthful article from the Brooklyn Union of a recent date, in regard to the advantages of the Southern States in point to Agriculture and manufactures.

It is a fact generally conceded that many land owners have too much land—more than they can make profitable, and hence a very natural question arises, How can the growth and prosperity of the State be promoted and the interest of the land owner, at the same time, advanced? All our natural advantages are worthless in the absence of skilled labor to develope them; how to secure this sort of labor, then, is the immediate and paramount question.

Have our people ever realized how much dormant capital they have lying around them, in the shape of unoccupied lands? Suppose they were to set about devising some plan to make these dormant lands contribute to their own individual profit, and to the general prosperity of the State, by having them made productive, instead of lying idle in forest. We should soon see many a waste place blossoming as the rose and every interest of the State keeping pace with the improvements of agriculture. This improvement could, we think, be at once inaugurated and rapidly advanced, by every one owning large bodies of land, selling at a mere nominal price, or even giving away, to the right sort of settlers, alternate tracks of 50 or 100 acres. Let this be done, and in a very short time the remaining portion will be worth five times what the same lands are now worth. The plan has been initiated in South Carolina and Georgia, as we learn from the Rural Carolinian, with, even already, the most gratifying results.

We throw out these suggestions for the consideration of those who, having large bodies of land, have become convinced of the necessity of disposing of a part of them, in order to render the remainder profitable.

DIVERSITY OF LABOR.

Public sentiment at the South has experienced a change on the subject of diversified labor, that is destined to render that section the most prosperous of any portion of our country. Formerly they preferred to pay the profits on manufactured goods, and the transportation, rather than encourage the artisan at home. All their energies with slave labor, were directed to the cultivation of those rich products of cotton, rice and sugar, for which their section enjoys a monopoly. From every representative of public opinion we perceive that the people are now alive to their true interest; that of encouraging not only the cultivation of their old staples, but of every other product for which their soil, climate, raw material, and the wants of the people are peculiarly adapted. Every portion of the South produces corn equal to the West, and some sections grow the best wheat in this country. There is no section so rich in the various natural advantages as the Southern States. Almost everything that is grown the Northern or Western States, flourishes there; and beside their soil and climate, they are rich in valuable timber—the hard pine, every variety of oak, ash, poplar, cypress, and other woods are abundant. And along the Alleghanies from Virginia to Alabama, is probably the richest section of the world for the great variety of its minerals; coal, iron, gold, copper, zinc, marble, salt and lime, have been developed in a rude slave labor way for many years. Skilled labor, science and capital are now directing their attention to this region. But perhaps the great advantages the South possesses over every other section of our vast country, is its immense water power, scattered almost everywhere throughout the hilly sections of the interior, surrounded with the raw material for working into manufactured products, and contiguous by rail and river to the markets of the world: not requiring two or three bushels of corn to send one bushel to market.

True, there are localities along the undrained flat lands, near swamps, and stagnant water courses, that are sickly at certain seasons. But the whole interior and hilly sections are more free from local diseases and epidemics than the West or the North. In proportion to population, more old persons can be found throughout the South than in any other section.

We learn that in many of our cities and towns organizations of colonies are being formed, with a view of exploring the Southern States, and of establishing at suitable localities, the nucleus of manufacturing towns and cities. These combinations among artisans of different callings, is a much more sensible way of improving their condition than trades unions to coerce higher wages. The contributions to support strikes, if applied to sending delegates to spy out the fertile lands and inviting opportunities awaiting their embrace, would enable many a family now struggling for existence in the frigid North, to become an independent owner of a home in a few years in the genial South, where now there is no class more welcome than the manufacturer and the skilled laborer.

THE TERM OF OFFICE CHEAT.

We commence to day, the publication of the correspondence between the parties implicated in the alleged fraud concerning the tenure of office clause of the Constitution, by giving the letter of Judge Tourgee to Col. Sweet, which will be followed to-morrow by the answer of Col. Sweet and the letter of Mr. Heaton.

This is a family quarrel with which we have nothing to do, and should not publish but for the fact that it relates to a grave charge of fraud upon the people, with which we think they ought to be made acquainted.

Tourgee says he is "religiously opposed to reading the SENTINEL." We think it would increase his piety, or at least constrain him to some decency, if he would read it more. But be that as it may, we hope somebody will send him a copy (we can't) when Col. Sweet's and Mr. Heaton's letters are printed.

We leave the questions at issue between the parties, to the jury of the great body of the people, who will be able, after reading both sides, to render a just verdict.

OPINION RENDERED.—The opinion of the Supreme Court, on the question of the Legislature holding over till 1872, was received and read in both Houses yesterday. Judges Pearson and Dick gave an opinion adverse to holding over; Judges Rodman, Settle and Reade, decline to give an opinion on the question.

The opinion was ordered to be printed for the purpose, we suppose, that the Legislature may have it in debatable form before them, to see whether they will accept it or order another.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Jan. 13, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Henry Eppes, col., presented a petition from J. H. Scott, and others praying the General Assembly to declare null and void the late municipal election held in the town of Weldon and to order a new election." The petitioners asserted that no notice was given of the time for holding the election.

The President presented to the Senate a communication from the Chief Justice Pearson and his Associate; Mr. Dick, containing an opinion adverse to the present General Assembly holding over four years, also, communications from the remaining associates, Messrs. Rodman, Settle and Reade, declining to give any opinion in reference to the matter.

On motion of Mr. Sweet, the communications were transmitted to the House, with a proposition to print.

By Mr. Etheridge, Bill to establish the County of Davie, with petition, referred.

By Mr. Love, the following resolution to wit:

Resolved, By the Senate that the President the rod appoint a Committee of three whose duty it shall be to inquire into, as certain and report to the Senate without delay,

1st. The number or value of the bonds of the State issued to each Railroad incorporated since May 1st 1865.

2nd. To whom said bonds were issued and when:

3rd. How these bonds in each case have been disposed of—by whom sold—to whom sold—when sold—at what figures sold—that is for what sum, and if there were different sales, the amount sold and received each sale, and

4th. They shall especially inquire whether or not there are any bonds unsold, and if so where they are, what disposition has been made or is being made of them, and still more especially, what use has been made or is being made of the money arising from the sale of said bonds,

Resolved further, That said Committee have plenary powers to send for persons and papers, and administer oaths, the violation of which shall be perjury.

Resolved further, That said Committee shall report promptly to the Senate, the failure or refusal of any person to appear or to produce papers after being notified to do so.

Mr. Colgrove moved a reference of the resolution to the Committee already appointed to investigate said matters, subsequently withdrew it, and the resolution passed.

CALENDAR.

Resolution on adjournment, proposing to adjourn sine die on the 7th February, 1870.

Mr. Forkner moved its reference to a Special Committee of three.

Mr. Welker moved to postpone its further consideration until the 7th of February.

The yeas and nays were called, both propositions were voted down, and the resolution, in its original form, was adopted. Yeas 30, nays 11.

Resolution of inquiry of the Treasurer for information as to the amount of money received during the last fiscal year under the several special tax provisions, respectively, and the amount of interest paid on the various classes of special tax bonds, was amended, on motion of Mr. Graham, by including the receipts and expenditures since Jan. 1st, 1869 to Jan. 1st, 1870, and passed.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolutions of Mr. Blythe passed, to reduce the per diem of members one third, (and as amended, on motion of Mr. Lindsay, to refund one-third of the per diem from the beginning of this Legislature, and, also, as amended, on motion of Mr. Forkner, so as to apply only to Henderson county. Which would require the Senator from Henderson to refund, to the Treasury, one-third of his per diem from the beginning of the Legislature.)

Mr. Blythe said, I hope that this Senate being a good natured body will reconsider these resolutions, if you fail to reconsider them they will become a law and I shall be under the necessity of taking advantage of the Homestead. Now Mr. President I believe the Homestead has absolutely been beneficial in a great many instances, however I should dislike I imagine, on my return home to be compelled to avail myself of its advantages in order to get out of the way of those resolutions, and I think I shall certainly have to do so if you fail to reconsider them. In this case I am reminded of an old man and a boy, he was going to hire as he said, for his board it he earned it, but if not he was to work longer. I am reminded also of a Dutchman and his neighbor who concluded to take a hunt together, they separated and agreed to meet again at a certain shelving rock, the Dutchman arrived before his friend and fell down upon his knees and engaged in prayer, saying Oh Lord, how great a sinner I am, Oh Lord, hurl down the rocks and mountains upon me, and hide me for I am not worthy to be seen in your presence. About this time his neighbor sprang to his feet at the top of the ledge of rocks, and the rocks began to pour down on the Dutchman, who ran back crying Oh Lord, Oh Lord, I was only joking.

The proposition to reconsider prevailed.

On motion of Mr. Welker, the preamble of the resolutions was amended, and the resolution was referred to the Committee on finance.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Jan. 14, 1870.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Argo presented a petition from the citizens of Orange, protesting against the passage of the bill known as the "Bill for the better protection of life and property," introduced into the General Assembly by Senator Shoffner, and denying emphatically the slander that the people of Orange county were inclined to resist the proper execution of the laws.

Mr. Seigriest, presented a petiton from the citizens of Wilkes concerning the boundary lines between that county and Surry. Referred.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

Jno. Leary, for Committee on Corporations, reported favorably upon the bill incorporating the Ann Holden and Murfreesboro Land, Loan and Building Association.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Robinson: A resolution for the relief of Jno. Crisp, of Macon county. Referred.

By Mr. Hodnett: A resolution raising a joint committee—2 on the part of the House and 2 on the part of the Senate, to prepare an address to be signed by the members of the Legislature, inviting the people of the State, of all classes and parties to join in, in preserving order and peace throughout the State. Lies over.

Mr. Barnett, for the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably upon several bills which were placed on the Calendar.

By Mr. Hodgin: A bill to incorporate the the N. C. Spoke and Handle Company. Referred.

By Mr. Long, of Richmond: A bill to incorporate the Reversion Manufacturing Company. Referred.

By R. W. Morris: A bill to repeal chaps. 34 and 68 Revise Code. Referred.

By Reynolds, col.: A bill to reduce the tax upon the professional, mercantile and distilling interests. Referred.

By Mr. Procter: A bill authorizing the Commissioners of Robeson to issue bonds. Lies over.

By Eagles, col: A bill to amend the act concerning inspectors. Lies over.

By Mr. Welch: A bill authorizing the Commissioners of Haywood to levy a special tax. Lies over.

By the same: A Bill to amend chap. 16, sec. 37 of the Revise Code. Referred.

By Mr. Rollinson: A bill amendatory to the act concerning the Western Turnpike Road. Referred.

By Mr. McCanless: A bill authorizing the Judge of Probate to appiont trustees in certain cases. Referred.

By Mr. Hodnett: A bill to authorize a municipal election in Milton, Caswell county. Lies over.

Mr. Hodnett moved to suspend the rules and take up his resolution concerning a legislative address to the people of the State, concerning the preservation of peace and order. Carried.

The resolution was read.

Mr. Hodnett took the floor and explained his motives in introducing the resolution. He thought such an address would have a good effect. He thought that such a policy would operate much better than any harsh and coercive measure.

Mr. Vest opposed the resolution.

Mr. Seymour thought that nothing could be accomplished by the address. He thought that the Legislature should take a bold and determined stand, and by vigorous legislation enforce the laws in every particular.

He moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Harris of Wake, col., was not prepared to vote against the proposition. He wished for a day or two for consideration.

After some debate, Mr. Seymour withdrew his motion to table and moved to postpone for two weeks, which motion was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The Bill (War) to secure the better protection of life and property.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the special order was postponed until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Wm. Cawthorne, col. the rules were suspended and the bill in favor of certain Sheriffs, was taken up.

Mr. Hodgin moved to refer the bill to the Committee on Finance.

After a debate of some length the motion to refer was put to a vote and rejected.

Mr. Gunter moved to amend by inserting the name of G. W. Williams, Sheriff of Chatham.

Cawthorne called the previous question upon the bill.

The call failed for the want of a quorum.

The call was renewed and the yeas and nays demanded.

The ballott being taken the call for the previous question was rejected by a vote of yeas 39, nays 43.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting communications from the Justices of the Supreme Court, in regard to the legislative term of office, with a proposition to print the usual number of copies.

(The communication from the Chief Justice and concurred in by Justice Dick, declared that the terms of the members of the present Legislature expire, by constitutional limitation, on the first Thursday in August, 1870. The other communications from the other Justices were not read and are understood to decline to give an opinion. They will all be published in full at another time.)

On motion of Mr. Welch, the proposition to print was concurred in.

The discussion upon the bill in favor of certain Sheriffs, was resumed.

The question recurred upon Mr. Gunter's amendment inserting the name of the Sheriff of Chatham.

After a debate of about an hours duration Mr. Gunter's amendment was put to a vote and adopted by a vote of yeas 51, nays 22.

Mr. Candler moved to add the name of J. Sumner, Sheriff of Buncombe. Adopted.

Harris of Wake, col. moved to refer to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Pou moved the indefinite postponement of the whole matter. He said the Issues Asylum was without funds, and he had been informed by one of the Commissioners that unless funds were placed at the disposal of the Commission, work would soon have to be suspended upon the Penitentiary. He thought that the financial condition of the State did not admit that these long indulgences to sheriffs, should be continued. He therefore made the motion to postpone.

The motion to indefinitely postpone after much debate was put to a vote and carried.

By J. Leary, col.: A bill to amend sec. 4 chapter 117 public laws 1868 69. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Gahagen, the rules were suspended and the bill establishing a bridge across the French Broad River, near Marshall, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr. Downing moved to suspend the rules and take up his resolution in reference to a reduction of per diem.

Pending a vote on the motion, the House, on motion adjourned.

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair its natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

NEW ADS.—O. G. Parsley & Co., Wilmington, offer new crop Cardenas molasses.

New Confectionery and Fruit Store, with entire fresh and new stock, W. A. Gattis, Fayetteville street.

New Meal and Factory cheese, G. T. Stronach.

Listen ye unfortunate; Dr. Thaxton proposes to cure the disease of drunkenness; we have no disposition to speak lightly on this subject, we know that many on whom the practice of excessive drinking has fastened its hold, would give anything in reason to free themselves from its toils. Dr. Thaxton is well known to many in this city, as a gentleman of high character and a skillful physician. It can do no harm for those needing his services to give him a trial.

LECTURE.—Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., will deliver a lecture on the subject of Temperance at Commons Hall, this, Friday evening, at 7½ o'clock. Seats free, and the public are invited to attend.

Members of the Order and Associate members, will meet at the Temperance Hall at 6½ o'clock.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.—Our former fellow-citizen, Dr. P. Babcock, having made arrangements to go into business in Greenville, S. C., will leave Raleigh in a day or two for his new home. His face was so familiar and his office on Fayetteville street, so well known that it seems like removing one of the landmarks for him to leave. We, in behalf of his many friends and acquaintances, bid him God speed and great success in his new home and new enterprize.

COLLISION.—We understand that a collision occurred near Littleton on the R. & G. Railroad, yesterday, between a Freight and Gravel train, by which some damage was sustained by the engines, but nobody was hurt. This is a very unusual occurence on that Road, the engineers and managers of which are noted for their caution and prudence.

MISS DIX.—This excellent and philanthropic lady is on a visit to the State, and is stopping at the Insane Asylum. Miss Dix will be remembered to all time, in North Carolina, as the original mover and advocate of that noble State charity.

IN THE CITY.—We noticed Hon. John Pool in the city yesterday. No doubt his presence is necessary to keep the hands straight. The latter are in great trouble, just now, and need considerable lashing and spurring to make toe the mark. They are caucussing heavily; Wednesday night and last night, they were running both Halls; one, it is said, for the "truly loil," and the other for the weak kneed.

NEW MASONIC CHART.—We have been shown by Mr. Bradley, the Agent, a beautiful new Masonic Chart, gotten up with great taste and beauty, and containing all the emblems of the three symbolic Degrees. In the centre is a finely executed likeness of Washington in M. M. Regalia, as Master of Fredericksburg Lodge; at the right upper corner is a head of P. G. M., Andrew Jackson, and at the left upper corner, a head of Gen. La Fayette, a noble patron of the order. On the right and left are the emblems very tastily executed and conveniently arranged for purposes of lecturing. This chart is not only a useful adjunct to the Library of the craft, but would be a very pretty picture for the parlor walls.—Mr. Bradley has them for sale, handsomely set in guilt frames in Clawson's best style. Call and see them.

FATHER BLYTHE.—This economical Senator from Henderson, got his resolution rescinded yesterday, after hard begging. It will be seen from his speech on the subject that he was not in earnest in offering his resolution. We guess he will be a little cautious how he offers his "Buncombe" resolutions hereafter. But is it not humiliating to see, in the General Assembly, "an old man, a bald-headed man, and a christian man," guilty of such dissimulation? But in this he is not worse, perhaps, than many others who make similar demonstrations.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the Legislature now in session, for an Act to incorporate the People's Building and Loan Association, of the City of Raleigh.

CORRESPONDENCE.

JUDGE TOURGEE TO COL. SWEET.

Hon. W. H. S. Sweet:

MY DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 19th inst., is received, enclosing an extract from the SENTINEL, and asking how much of the statement there attributed to me, if any, is true. I have also just received a letter from Mr. Barringer, intimating that his name has, in some manner, I cannot imagine how, been mixed up in the affair. As I am religiously opposed to reading the SENTINEL, I know nothing of the present phase of the matter beyond what I gather from these sources and your remarks in the Senate, on Friday last, as reported in the Standard. If I had seen the article in the Winston paper, or in its Raleigh namesake, I should have addressed you in regard to it, without waiting for your inquiry.

I am unwilling that any one should suffer undeserved reproach on account of my acts. If they are in any manner wrong, I wish to bear the blame and "smart for mine own fault." I wish, therefore, first of all, to do justice here to one who is, probably, a political opponent. I was on the train on the night of Nov. 25th, and had a conversation with some one, (I think a member of the Senate,) which others may have overheard, or taken part in upon this subject. In that conversation I made the statement substantially, which I shall give hereafter in this letter, which, with several errors (as that which represents me, instead of yourself, as chairman of the Committee on the legislative article,) may have been reported without intentional misrepresentation.

As to what any eaves-dropping political scavenger may have picked up of a strictly private conversation between Mr. Barringer and myself, a month before that time, he is as welcome to it as a cur dog to a crumb or a kick.

Before proceeding further, however, let me, in justice to myself, say this. I have never, for an instant, supposed that you were guilty of any intentional misrepresentation, fraud, collusion or other wrongful act of any character in the premises. There seems, from what I can gather, to be a difference in recollection as to events simultaneous with the adoption of the legislative article of the Constitution, and it, in stating my remembrance of these circumstances, I have seemed to impugn your motives in any manner, it has been entirely unintentional on my part. I am aware that you are quite incapable of anything of that character. However much we might differ in our recollection of any given event, in opinion or in party, I could never believe you guilty of intentional falsehood or believe you even adjusted by unworthy and personal motives in the discharge of a public duty. I might deny the accuracy of your memory, doubt the soundness of your views, or question the policy of your course, but not the uprightness of your intention. It, therefore, my words in the warmth of this reported conversation, or at any other time shall have seemed to extend so far, I am ready, willing and anxious to make the fullest, broadest and completest retraction and reparation, thus far, which it lies in my power to furnish.

At the same time you will understand that I do not admit the accuracy of the views which I understand you entertain, in regard to circumstances attending the adoption of the second article of the Constitution. I think that in this respect your recollection is decidedly at fault.

In order that you may fully apprehend my position in this respect, I will give you the substance of my statement on the night referred to by the Winston Sentinel. I may premise here that this statement was reduced to writing several months ago, before any dispute in regard to the matter had arisen, and long before the Legislature had met. Some weeks before the opening of the present session, I had occasion to forward a transcript of this to Raleigh; which I will hereafter direct to be placed in your hands. Not only so—but during the campaign for the Constitution, I was interrogated by letter upon this subject, and my answer was substantially the same as the account which I gave in the conversation referred to. I make this statement to show you that I did not originally go out of my way to place myself in antagonism with you. Had I known that your recollection differed from my own, before mine had become in a manner public, I should have said nothing in regard to it until the question had been decided, for I certainly would not seek an issue of veracity with one whose friendship I have learned to prize as I do yours.

Briefly then, my recollection of the matter is as follows.

After the Legislative article had passed its second reading, Feb. 13th, and before it had come up on the third, I had conversed with several members in regard to the term of the Legislature. I believed then as I believe now, that it would be the foolishest thing upon earth, to submit a Constitution making so many and such radical changes to the people, and leave the door open for any revulsion of feeling, which might occur, before these changes had become crystalized and settled, to begin the process of immediate revolution. I knew, as every one now sees, that if the Legislature held but two years, the crusade of amendment would begin before the ink with which the Constitution was written had dried upon the parchment and before the changes which it had made could be practically tested. I believed that most of these changes inaugurated by the Constitution were just, beneficent and valuable. As such, I desired to perpetuate them. I believed that the surest and best, if not the only, way to do this, and also to secure public peace, would be to enlarge the term of the first Legislature. This was my honest, deliberate conviction and avowed purpose. There was no discussion of the matter in the Convention—for reasons which will appear—but I had conversed with a number of members on the subject and felt confident that a majority would concur in this opinion as did the Convention of South Carolina. In accordance with this view, I had drawn up a section unmistakable in its working and purpose, continuing the first Legislature until 1872. As usual I showed this proposed amendment to my neighbor, Col. Heaton, who sat, you remember, on my left and in front of yourself. With his customary caution, Mr. Heaton said it would not do and must not be introduced. You are aware that he not unfrequently acted as an extinguisher on my impulsiveness. In speaking of it, he called it to your attention, as chairman of the Committee on the Legislative article. This was just before the article came up on its third reading, or while it was under consideration.—Some one was speaking and we retired into the lobby, behind the President's desk and talked it over. Mr. Heaton insisted that it "would never do" "would ruin the Constitution" &c. You suggested an amendment to section 28—(27 in the Constitution) instead of the one I proposed. I looked it over and changed a word or two. I thought it was only a longer road to the end I desired to reach, and at the time supposed that to be your intention. In this I may have done you wrong, but if you will examine the record, you will at once see, how very natural it was that I should have imputed to you the same motive which actuated me. The Legislative article as it passed its second reading provided as follows:

1st. For biennial elections (sec. 3rd.)

2nd. That persons elected hold their office until the next biennial election, (sec. 28th.)

3rd. That an election be held on the first Thursday of August 1870, and every two years thereafter, (sec. 30th.)

4th. The section last referred to, was amended on motion of Mr. Rodman so as to provide for an election when the Constitution was submitted, and that the members then elected should hold until their successors were elected at a regular election, the first of which had been appointed for August 1870. See Convention Journal, page 187 to 199. The article, as it stood at the close of the second reading, most incontestibly continued the first Legislature until August 1870. I proposed to amend Sec. 29 (28, of the Constitution) so as to defer the first regular election till August 1872. You proposed, as a substitute, as I understood it, for my proposition, an amendment to section 28, of the reported article, which, if I mistake not, was identical with section 27th of this article of the constitution, except the work "ensuing" which I believe was inserted by myself. I believed then, as I believe now, that the addition of this section to the article, as it stood at the end of the second reading, most unquestionably continued the present Legislature until 1872. If it has not that effect, then its language is entirely inoperative, and the article stands precisely as it did before being amended on its third reading. From this fact, patent at the time to my own mind, I arrived, almost of necessity, at the conclusion that your motive was identical with mine.

I can understand however, how your apprehension of the matter may have been different. Without having the amendments made upon the second reading, in printed form before you, you may have supposed that the first legislature was continued by it only until August 1868 and so have offered your amendment only to continue it until 1870. In this view, you may have regarded the amendment offered by yourself as a sort of compromising measure, a medium between two extremes. While I can readily conceive that this may have been your view and intention, and while no one is readier to admit your statement that such was your motive, you will do me the credit to believe, that it did not occur to me until I had heard of your denial. Indeed so strong was the other impression on my mind, that for a time, I could not see how it could possibly be that your motive was different from my own. A careful review of the circumstances and consideration of the record has shown me, that my deduction as to your motive may have been erroneous, and I cheerfully accept your statement that it was. I may have committed the same error as to Mr. Heaton's intentions. This view upon your part, however, I must insist could only have been founded upon an entire misapprehension of the status of the article at that time. The article as it stood provided that the present Legislature should hold until August 1870. I so understood it then. I thought it advisable that it should hold until 1872. Your proposition at that stage of the proceeding meant the same thing; I so understood it at that time.—You seem to have understood it differently. Hinc illæ lachryma.

And now as to the charge of "fraud upon the people." I never intend to say more upon the subject, allow me a few words in relation to this charge. If any one is guilty of such fraud it is myself. I was in favor of the Legislature holding until 1872. I accepted and labored and if need be would have supported by all the means in my power, the phraseology of section 27, with the purpose of accomplishing that end. I admit the facts charged, I did it consciously, deliberately and intentionally I deny however, most emphatically that even the taint of fraud is found in it. Neither legal nor moral turpitude attaches to it. I say farther, that the man who makes this claim "writes himself down an ass," in the most unmistakable characters.

What are the circumstances? A Constitution is framed by a Convention, the propounding power, and submitted, in the plain vernacular, to the people, the enacting, the ordaining power. Their sanction gives it vitality. Without that it is blank paper, null and void. They are free to ratify or reject. The presumption of intelligence rests upon their acts. They did ratify it, and then, it is claimed that there was "a fraud upon the people," because one section was not worded as some effete old granny's after thought would have required it to be! It is urged that the people did'nt know whether it meant "pepper" or "ginger," two years, or more! This presumption is too violent to be entertained. But if they did not, whose fault was it? Was it that of members of the Convention, or does the "curse come home to roost!" on that antecedent regime which gave ignorance a two-third majority in the State? But it is too absurd to argue. Would Jay Cooke or Swepson, be admitted to deny that he knew the force and effect of a promissory note which he had executed? Would a bishop be credited should he plead that he did not know the tenor of the Apostle's Creed? Would Herschel have been believed had he avowed that he did not know that "the square of two" meant four?

But this charge comes with an exceeding bad grace from a party, whose minority in the Convention, did nothing, absolutely nothing but attempt to slip into the Constitution by some dettress of verbiage some of their own peculiar tenets. Had they succeeded would it have been "a fraud upon the people?" Not at all. It was their right, their privilege and their duty to do so.—They were sent there for the express purpose of using all their power to secure that end. They did it and I give them credit for doing it tolerably well.

But the most brilliant absurdity of this charge is yet to be considered. While the Convention was in session the Republican members were denounced by the entire opposition as "niggers," "field-hands," "ourang outangs," "mongrels," "black and tan,"—in short the whole vocabulary of contemptuous abuse, was exhausted in vain endeavors to show our ignorance, folly and incapacity. The Conservative members stood among us as being of a superior race, "overseers," "gentleman," "statesmen," "giants," "in shape and gesture proudly eminent!" Even the rustiest, scatter-brain, smooth-bore of the party compared with the brightest Republican "as I to Hercules!" They played upon the same string in the canvass. All the wealth, all the education, all the intellect, all the experience, all the acumen, all the ability of North Carolina was centered in the Conservative party! The Republican party had not a single man who knew enough to discharge the duties of a dog-killer in a country village, and the whole party united had not brains enough to enable one dunce to manipulate in the "College of Fools."

The Constitution came forth and was the cynosure of all eyes for more than a month. All the transcendent rays of Conservative intellect and genious were converged upon it, scanning every word and letter, line and point, from "we the people" to "Done in Convention." The whole kennel, from thorough bred "Lad" to bastard "Jack," gave tongue upon it by night and by day, without ceasing. And now "these pseudo councellors of God" come before the great tribunal of human reason, and cry out.—"Oh! we were cheated!" "We didn't know what this meant!" "The Party of Intelligence" could'nt read English! The "black and tan" have deceived the people! The "College of Fools" have defrauded all but infinite wisdom!"

What a magnificent piece of speaking is this pitiable confession! And how exceedingly credible! How it smells of hypocrisy and subterfuge! Intelligence cheated, deceived and defrauded by ignorance and stupidity! As well might the skilled Hercules wrestling with an infant, complain of trickery on the part of the child.

If there was any fraud in the matter it rests with them. They cannot plead ignorance. If there was ambiguity and uncertainty, they must have known it, when the Constitution was before the people. Why did not these self-constituted shepherds of the people undeceive them and defeat the Constitution, if the people willed it otherwise. No sir, they knew that these sections with their context and surroundings, would sustain no other construction than the one I put upon them when adopted. They knew that one of the best features of this Constitution, and that which most embittered their hate and venom, was its capacity for self-perpetuation. They knew that those oppressed thousands, who looked to it as their safeguard for the future, would flock to its support all the more eagerly, if they knew that it contained that guarantee of permanence and certainty which this provision gives.

They cunningly kept that back and reserved it as the basis for that resolution in which the lately published "Appeal to the People" was designated to inaugurate.

For me, as I have said before, I meant an enlarged term, I did not care whether it was said in five words or five hundred, in the indicative or subjunctive mood, by direct declaration or by cutting off all other hypotheses. If I had believed then, as I believe now most firmly and sincerely, that an election next August would have resulted in more murders than there are members in the General Assembly to be elected, I would never have admitted the possibility of a doubt. I would have introduced my amendment and pushed it to the extent of my power. If the present section shall be held to authorize the Legislature to hold over until 1872 I believe you will deserve more praise for its introduction and adoption, than for any other act of your life. If not so construed I believe, that the next summer will witness here, the most fearful outrages that have ever disgraced civilization. The mask, the rod and the rope will be the arguments of the canvass, and assassination the watchword of success. Either human nature must falsify every rule which the past has prescribed for its action, and the portents of to-day must belie themselves in every particular, or every good citizen will have reason to thank God should we be spared the excitement of an election next summer.

Let some one solve one question for me, and I will foretell the future with exactitude. "Given forty houses invaded by armed men in disguise and forty men and women beaten or otherwise outraged, in one county in four or five months "in the piping times of peace" and what would be the amount of crime under the excitement of a general election?"

Yet it was fraud in me to seek to avoid this! If it was I was guilty, double guilty of such fraud, and I pray God this night, in the still hour which comes between labor and slumber, as I close this letter, that this fraud may be successful and the baptism of blood and fire be averted from the state of our adoption.

I am sir, very respectfully your obedient friend and servant,
ALBION W. TOURGEE.

The Living Machine.

Injure the main spring of a watch and every portion of the works becomes disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what that elastic piece of metal is to a chronometer. It influences the action of the other organs, and controls, to a certain extent, the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried further; for as the weakness or other imperfections of the main spring is indicated on the face of the time-piece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is sallow or faded, the eyes are deficient in lustre and intelligence, and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tell as plainly as written words could do, that the great nourishing organ whose office it is to minister to the wants of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty. It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this end Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to be the one thing needful. The broken main spring of a watch may be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates.—As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopœia have been exhausted, without at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of this wholesome and palatable, yet powerful, stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered, and upon this important gland, as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness, regulating and reinvigorating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

SUPREME COURT.

Thursday, Jan. 13.—At 10 o'clock Court was opened—all the Justices present.—Cases from the 5th District were called.

Dan ex dem. McLennan vs. Chisholm, from Montgomery. Argued by J. M. McCorkle, Esq., for plaintiff; Hon. Thos. Ashe and Hon. William H. Battle, for defendant.

Alexander McKay vs Noah Smotherman, from Montgomery. Argued by Ashe, for plaintiff—no counsel for defendant.

The following members of the legal profession, were present during the day, viz: Hons. Thos. Ashe, W. H. Battle, A. S. Merrimon, S. F. Phillips and James M. Cloud. Also Messrs. Dan'l. Coleman, Sr., W. T. Faircloth, A. T. Davidson, Neill McKay, Thomas B Keogh, J. M. McCorkle, W. A. Moore and Bart. Fuller.

Court adjourned at 12.30 M., until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

Next week cases from the 3rd and 7th Districts will be taken up. No opinions have yet been delivered.

We understand that our Deputy Sheriff complains, because we stated last week that the liberation of the prisoners from jail was effected by members of the Union League. We repeat it again that it was the work of the League, and the Deputy believes it to be so too if he would only acknowledge it. He knows that from fifteen to twenty persons, supposed to be negroes, came to the jail, armed, for the purpose.—It is not worth while to try to shield the League in this case, everybody believes it was them. But the League men are bound to stick up to each other.—Winston Sentinel.

TO COTTON AND TOBACCO PLANTERS AND CORN AND PEANUT GROWERS.

The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO,

PRICE $40 PER TON OF 2,000 lbs., AT NORFOLK VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudices produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the seed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

I. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

Orders promptly attended to, addressed to any of our leading Commission Merchants or to Gen'l Agents office over Gwathmey Bros & Co.'s new Warehouse on Town Point, Norfolk, Va.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills on workmen-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 400 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the head block and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lyon Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a log 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. ALDRIDGE PARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

P. YATES.
JAMES PENNY.

This last mentioned Mill may be seen on Walnut Creek, 5 miles South of Raleigh.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prove it adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with much less we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article. PRATT'S "Astra." Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

WILL BE SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDder, on the 15th day of January next, at the Court House door in the Town of Louisburg, the valuable property known as the "Pierce Mills," with EIGHTY-EIGHT acres of land attached. This property is located in the Eastern part of Franklin county, near the "Portis Gold Mines" on "Sandy Creek"—A NEVER FAILING STREAM. The Mills are in excellent condition and has an extensive and profitable patronage. The situation is an excellent one for a Cotton Gin and a store and with these added the property would prove a fortune to any energetic man in a few years. The Gin and Store Houses could be put up at very little cost, as there is an excellent saw Mill attached to the other Mills with an abundance of timber on the land, belonging to the property. For further particulars apply to Mr. R. M. Pierce, who resides at the Mill, who will take pleasure in showing the property. Terms made known on day of sale.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
